Airport Transfers

1st Choice - The Dulles Intl. Airport is 50 miles and 1 hour from the hotel. Please see airport website <http://www.metwashairports.com/Dulles/> for ground transportation choices from the airport.

2nd Choice – Baltimore Washington Intl. Airport is 82 miles and 1 ½ hours from Shepherdstown. Please visit the airport website <http://www.bwiairport.com/en> for ground transportation choices.

Ground Transportation

- Taxi Service – too far!!
- Shuttle Service – Shuttle Service is available from All-Star Limos but it's expensive, $100.00 for two hours Sunday-Thursday & Friday-Saturday $125 per hour. Please call Angie at 304-876-2500 for detailed pricing and you must book at least a week in advance.
- Car Rentals: Please make your reservations in advance so the airport has enough cars. We don't have a national discount agreement at this time but this website compares all pricing, no matter the company and is really handy: <http://www.sidestep.com/cars>

Hotel Parking

- Self Parking at the hotel is free and they have plenty of room.

Spa Services

- Please visit this website for more info, they ask that you book massages 24 hours in advance, 304-870-7011: http://www.clarionfitnesscenter.com/Section.asp?article_id=41

Harewood House is one of several houses in the vicinity of Charles Town, West Virginia built for members of the Washington family. The house was designed by John Ariss for Samuel Washington in 1770. Washington moved from his farm on Chotank creek in Stafford County, Virginia to Harewood, accumulating 3,800 acres (15 km²) by the time he died in 1781.

George Washington visited the house several times, including a visit in 1794 for the wedding of James Madison to Dolley Payne Todd. Dolley's sister was Lucy Washington, wife of Samuel Washington's son George Steptoe Washington, who had inherited the estate. The property remains in the Washington family.

Next stop, O’Sullivan Farms – visit Black Tie Affair & Prized at Randy & Clissy’s Farm, the leading Breeding Farm in West Virginia.
